

I would like to add to a previous statement that I believe States, like Wisconsin should be able to set there own laws based on that state's specific needs. Wisconsin's elected politicians, like Jon Erpenbach who authored our legislation for our no call list law meets our needs. The national law is weak and not sufficient.

Please leave our law in Wisconsin intact!

Thank you,

Thomas R. Waller